APPENDIX.

*Notes to supplement, correct and enlarge the information contained in the
A Volume Gazetteer of the Bhandara district.*

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION.

In the year 1914 the headquarters of the Tirora tahsil was transferred from Tirora to Gondia—a town of 5,847 inhabitants, situated at the junction for the Satpura narrow gauge railway running to Jubbulpore and the Chanda-Nagbhir railway which was under construction in 1907. The town has since been rapidly increasing in importance and trade. It is being managed by the Notified Area Committee the President of which is the Tahsildar of Gondia. The Railway Company has built a fine station, which is provided with electric light.

KOTWARS.

Under recent orders there has been a slight change in the remuneration of kotwars who have now lost their right to the hides of dead cattle. It has been decided that the owners of cattle are entitled to take the skins if they wish to do so.

CO-OPERATIVE MOVEMENT.

The most important feature of the Industrial and Agricultural development of the district is the opening of the Bhandara Central Bank which was registered in October 1911. It started its work with 3 societies and a small working capital of Rs. 4,525. The funds of the bank are raised mainly by (1) share capital and (2) local deposits. Loans are also taken from the Provincial Co-operative Bank at Jubbulpore.

The Central Bank has two kinds of societies, Agricultural and Industrial, numbering 71 in all and consisting of 912 members. The bank has been making substantial progress as will be seen from the following statement :—

Period year ending.	No. of Societies.	Working capital.	Rate of dividend.	Reserve fund.
		Rs. a. p.		Rs.
31-3-1912	...	3	4,525 0 0	...
31-3-1913	...	20	17,941 0 9	4%
30-6-1914	...	49	46,186 0 3	5%
30-6-1915		65	59,146 0 5	5%
				1,120

The Directors of the bank are elected from amongst the shareholders, ~~one~~ those holding 10 or more shares worth Rs. 25 each being eligible for election.

EXCISE.

Country spirit.—The Sadar Distillery and outstill systems were completely abolished in 1910 and since 1911 the whole district has been under the contract supply system. Liquor is supplied at a fixed rate (12 annas per proof gallon with effect from the 1st April 1916) by the distillery contractors at Seoni through warehouses at Bhandara, Gondia and Sakoli. With the exception of a few shops where the fixed fee system is being tried as at Nagpur, licences for the retail sale of liquor are sold annually by auction and, in addition to the auction fee, the licencees are required to pay the cost price and the Government duty which ranges from Re. 1-4-0 to Rs. 9-1-0 per proof gallon in different parts of the district. The number of retail shops was 260 in 1909-10 but it was reduced to 197 in 1914-15.

Liquor is issued at two strengths, viz., 25 and 60 degrees under proof known as dubara and rasi respectively, but the latter and lower strength has met the higher demand.

Opium.—The issue price of opium is now Rs. 35 per seer. The number of retail shops is 49. In the year 1914-15 licence fees amounted to Rs. 41,515 and duty Rs. 70,262.

Ganja.—The number of retail shops is 47. Collections from licence fees amounted to Rs. 19,670 and those from duty Rs. 13,575.
